Storytelling and Recording Vocabulary

In order to be successful language learners, students need to learn new vocabulary. But in order to be able to “use” they first need to store and recall it. In this session we will look at how students can store and then retrieve this new vocabulary and what it means “to know a word”.

Teaching and Assessing Writing at B1 and B2

Writing in English is a challenge for Italians. In this session we will look at how you can assist your students with their exam writing skills. In addition we will look at the assessment and grading criteria for Cambridge and IELTS writing.
